1. On 12, 14 and 17 August 1952 three trainloads of repatriated Sudeten Germans reached Jablonec. They had been deported after the war to Eastern Germany. Apartments were prepared for them and they were received at the station by an official reception committee. They have been permitted to withdraw money from their bank accounts, although bank accounts are frozen for all other residents. It is said that before returning, the entire group passed through a Communist indoctrination at Weimar.
2. Preparations were made at Karlovy Vary for a similar group of Sudetens who were expected back. A reception committee was informed.
